Newton’s Application

An object of mass \( m = 5 \text{kg} \) is then being pushed along an inclined plane by a horizontal force \( F \) as shown below.

1) Calculate the magnitude of the force \( F \) necessary to slide the object up the ramp with a constant velocity.
2) Deduce the magnitude of the normal force acting on the object.